ASKS BRYAN TO STOP PLOT TO STEAL

OMAHA, July 31. — Hurling Bryan's own words in his teeth, Victor Rosewater, editor of the Bee, in an open letter today charged that the Nebraska Democrats are, through a trick of the primary ballots, seeking to steal the Populist vote of the state, to take it from Watson and give it to Bryan.
"If the larceny of property," said Rosewater, referring to Bryan's speech, before the civic forum of New York last February, "breaks the commandment no less when 'through the operation of the law' than when 'in violation of the law,' I ask you, Mr. Bryan, if the larceny of something more precious than property, namely, the unpurchasable votes of the people, is not equally reprehensible whether the theft is committed in violation of the law or under cover of legal technicalities."
Rosewater has filed protests with the secretary of state against the Democratic plan to have the Democratic electors designated as Democratic and Populist. In his open letter he tells Bryan: "If this plot succeeds you will have the benefit of the votes intended to be cast for Thomas E. Watson as well as those intended to be cast for you. I appeal to you to put your stamp of disapproval upon this attempted fraud and imposition, which a word from you would stop."

MANY SENDING COIN TO BRYAN

LINCOLN, Neb., July 30.—When W. J. Bryan returned to Lincoln this morning he found about a bushel of letters containing contributions to his campaign fund. These letters came from every part of the United States, and contained amounts varying from $1 to several hundred dollars.
Among the checks was one from a Memphis newspaper for $426.75, which that paper had collected from its subscribers. The list of givers to this Memphis fund included "Widow's Mite" of $1, and an equal amount from the Mary Galloway home of Memphis. Word has been received at Fairview that in all parts of the country Democratic newspapers are receiving subscriptions to Bryan's fund. Especially in the south is this kind of work being done.
On the train between Omaha and Lincoln this morning several contributions were handed to Bryan. He was highly gratified at the reception accorded him in Iowa and Nebraska.
